Motion Made: Board Member Negra

Seconded: Board Member Brion

Board Decision: Member Brion noted that the PLCB’s contract with the Philadelphia Police Department has been money well spent in that it has helped to reduce the number of robberies at the PLCB’s Fine Wine & Good Spirits stores. Chairman Holden also expressed his belief that the physical presence of the police in the PLCB’s Fine Wine & Good Spirits stores is an effective deterrent.

Member Negra asked Nick Melnick, Chief Information Officer, for clarification regarding the PLCB’s staff augmentation needs. Mr. Melnick indicated that the proposed staff augmentation expenditures are related to existing positions for which the contracts have lapsed or are going to lapse. He explained that these positions are necessary because of the specialized nature of the work being performed and that similar specialized staffing needs are experienced by other Commonwealth agencies, not just the PLCB.

Chairman Holden asked whether there were any other questions or comments regarding these matters, but none were raised.

Unanimously agreed (3-0 vote) to Approve all Purchasing & Contracting matters.
